

Working together

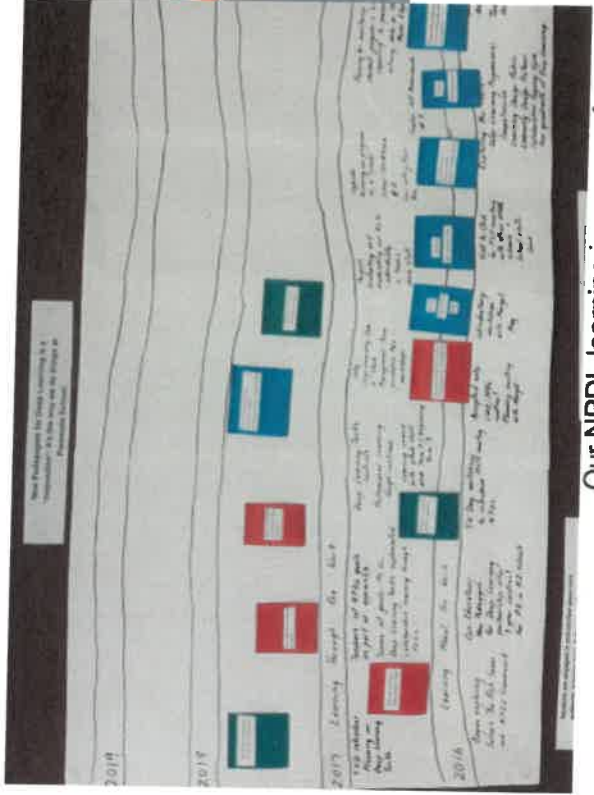

Sharing ideas with peers and receiving feedback

Innovative
Student Agency
Blended Learning
New Pedagogies
Inquiry Learning
Project Based
Student Voice

Yr 3&4 collaborating task.

Our NPDL learning journey so far

Pest Free Paramata Team

Cafe group discussing their menu in the library

At Island Bay Marine Reserve learning about sea creatures.

Vege patch kids

Wetlands group at Te Rito Gardens

Wetlands group after a trip to Te Rito Gardens

Learning Environment

Global Virtual Home

Outdoors

School Libraries

Red Cross Welcome Kit team ready to sell their baking to fundraise for their kits.

Arriving in Wellington to deliver kits to the Red Cross.

Margaret Miller from the Red Cross speaking to students about refugees and what the Red Cross does.

Rm 1b being interviewed by senior students about Sticky's Garden, for their project, a newspaper.

students
teachers parents experts community

Learning partnerships

Rm 1a working with a local Landscape Gardener on Sticky's garden.

Yr 3 showing her big buddy her kea illustration for making a road sign

Room 7 refugee project.

Sharing our Deeper Learning with our whanau/parents.

Yr 3&4 students sharing their kea gym gear with their Yr 7&8 buddies

Using Tinkercad to make 3D models.

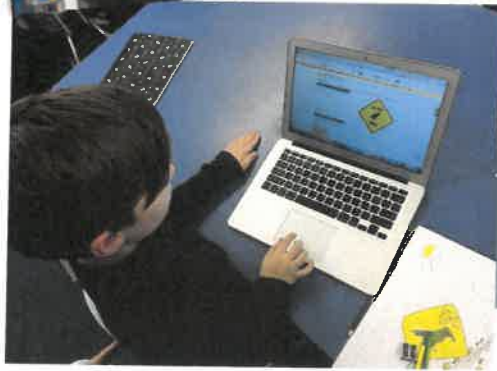

Yr 3&4 students sharing drone designs with their Yr 7&8 buddies.

Connecting Technology
Collaboration

Access Leveraging Digital Communication

Personalisation
Critical thinking

Emailing kea conservation to get more information about why the kea are the cheekiest bird.

Creating prototype ideas on Tinkercad to then 3D print

Getting the 3D printer warmed up!

Y5&6 students sharing their knowledge of how the 3D printer works with Y3&4 students