

Mahatma Gandhi

At the moment Mahatma is on the street making his clothes because he does not have a house or much money to buy any thing to where. He is thinking about how he is going to do the next stitch. Next he is going to do the hard yet doable stitch.

Mahatma lost his parents in the war that was fought over India when he was 7 and has no memories of them, this makes him very sad.

Mahatma does not have a job so he does not earn very much money, he only weaves his clothes.

He is not very tall; he is not very heavy either. Mr Gandhi is very skinny because he only eats enough food to stay alive, Mahatma does not think that any has to eat too much food to stay alive. He has no hair which means he is bald. He has very wrinkly skin. His voice is high and squeaky. Mahatma Gandhi has glasses his; green eyes are covered by them.

Mahatma Gandhi does not like war because it reminds him of his mum and dad but loves peace and India he also loves jokes but. My friend wants to achieve world peace. He is afraid of India getting taken back by the British. Mr Gandhi is friendly because he thinks that violence is never the answer.
