

Salvador Dali

Salvador Dali lives in Spain and his children, Thomas, Lochie, Matthew have left home but his wife Katie is still living with him.

His job is painting and his age is 75 years old and he's 1.30m tall and weighs 66kg. His face looks old and wrinkly and his hairs are stiff and he has a moustache that is thin. because he's old. His eyes are brown with a creamy white around the outside.

His favorite things to do are play with his children, go swimming in the sea and playing soccer. He rely likes playing with his children because he never gets to se them any more since they left home. He's all ways liked swimming in the sea, he's never liked the swimming pools because he thinks that there to noise. Salvador Dali has always liked playing soccer ever since he was little. Because his dad was a famous soccer player.

He thinks most jokes are really funny

His children think his cunning and clever.

At the moment he is in Wellington because he is having a holiday, swimming with his children at Pauatahanui inlet and he's having a very good time because he's with his children.

Lochie.
