

Cecil Beaton

Cecil Beaton lives in England. He was a photographer. He smothers his hair with gel every morning. He is one meter and seventy-seven centimetres tall. He is sixty-six kg and he is slim and bony.

Cecil Beaton is a vegetarian but he doesn't like broccoli. His voice is croaky and he has to clear his throat every few seconds. He likes eating lollipops because they are sweet and they taste yum.

He dislikes concrete because it gets hot and when it is cold. Rain makes him sad because they run around like they are headless. Cecil Beaton wants to achieve nothing because he's lazy. He is afraid of spiders.

Cecil Beaton is very, very, very clever. At the moment Cecil Beaton is fishing in the Pacific Ocean. Cecil Beaton is in a kayak in the middle of the Pacific Ocean and what he will be doing next is kayaking back to shore with a very big Marlin hopefully.
