The children have a show this Friday based on the classic story of Rumpelstiltskin. We are sure they will enjoy this hilarious and interactive adaptation of Grimm's beloved fairy tale. BOOK WEEK

Well, it was an extremely fun and very successful Book Week. We were so lucky to have local author Gillian Candler come and talk to the whole school about her writing process. The NZ Book Council provided her visit free. The daily quiz was eagerly awaited each morning, with some tough competition within the syndicates. Lots of laughter was heard over creating the alien names for the lucky draw. In addition, some incredibly complicated systems emerged to try to guess the number of alien lollies in the jar! The school is looking amazing with the classroom windows decorated with themes of different books. Congratulations to all winners.

The Scholastic Book Fair was enthusiastically visited, which meant not only were a lot of books bought for homes, but we also raised about $2,000 to be able to purchase new books for the library! Thanks so much to everyone for supporting it. The highlight of the week though has to be the Book Character Parade. Although it was a very chilling morning, there was an amazing array of costumes and a great way to round off the Book Week and the term. Happy reading, Emma
