Book Week

What a great parade we had last week and so great to see all the wonderful book characters on show. Today we have had author Paul Beavis come into the school to work with the children. We've had some exciting activities including a daily quiz and competitions. Many thanks to Emma McGill for all her hard work organising the book fair and to all the parents for their support.

Kahikatea Camp at Bridge Valley

Although the weather has been a little chilly and wet the children are all having a great time at the Bridge Valley Camp in Nelson. They are doing many character building and team bonding activities and no doubt will be return on Friday afternoon with plenty of great experiences to share.

School Holidays

As usual time has flown by and we are now at the end of term 1. The school has been very settled throughout the term and the children are all working hard on their learning. Thank you to all the staff and wider community for helping get the year off to such a positive start. Have a fabulous break and if you are going away travel safely.

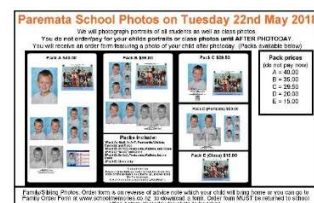

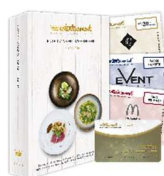

School finishes this Friday at 3pm and starts back on Monday April 30.

LETTER FROM KITOOLA SCHOOL

Dear friends at Paremata school,

Receive greetings full of joy from the entire Hopeland Junior school Kitoola students and teachers. Thank you so much for all the support you have given our school. All has helped us improve our learning and we know that all these children will reach their full potential.

Special thanks to Heather for all you have done to connect our school and students who have fundraised. Thank you so much.

Recently you helped us acquire play area equipment which for most of the children was the first time to see and play on them. Thank you so much.

Yours in service

Valence Rutaisire, Executive Director
